

RIGHT TO REPORT

If you, or someone you know, are experiencing sexual abuse or sexual harassment, The Imperial County Jail wants to know. We want you to report right away! Why?

- We want to keep YOU safe; it is our job! It is your right to be free from sexual abuse and sexual harassment.
- We want to conduct an investigation of the reported incident.
- We want to hold the perpetrator accountable for his/her actions.
- We want to provide YOU with relevant information and support services.

How to Report

Imperial County Jail offers multiple ways to report sexual abuse and sexual harassment:

- Telephone: (442)265-2272.
- Report to any staff, volunteer, contractor, or medical or mental health staff.
- Submit a grievance or sick call slip.
- Report to the PREA Coordinator or PREA Compliance Manager.
- Write a letter to or call the Sure Helpline Center.
- Tell a family member, friend, legal counsel, or anyone else outside the facility. They can report on your behalf by calling (442)265-2272.
- You also can submit a report on someone's behalf, or someone at the facility can report for you using the ways listed here.

External Reporting Option

You also can make a report to Sure Helpline Center at (760)352-7873. This resource is located outside of the Imperial County Jail, and you can remain anonymous upon request. You can also mail them a letter to their address:

654 W. Main Street
El Centro, CA 92243

You can also report by calling the Imperial County Juvenile Hall at: (442)265-2425 and request to speak to a supervisor.

IF YOU ARE ABUSED

Support services are available from the Sure Helpline Center and can be reached at (760)352-7873.

What to Do If You Have Been Sexually Abused

- Tell a staff member as soon as possible.
- Seek medical attention BEFORE you shower, eat, drink, change clothing, brush your teeth, or use the bathroom.
- Share as much information as possible when answering questions to assist with the investigation.

NOTICE FOR FAILURE TO REPORT

Anyone who engages in, fails to report, or knowingly condones sexual harassment or sexual abuse of an incarcerated person shall be subject to disciplinary action and may be subject to criminal prosecution.

ZERO TOLERANCE

The Imperial County Jail has a zero-tolerance policy for sexual abuse and sexual harassment. What does this really mean? It means that YOU have the right to be free from sexual abuse and sexual harassment by anyone at the facility, including an incarcerated person, staff member, volunteer, or contractor. No one has the right to sexually abuse or sexually harass you. No one.

What Is Sexual Harassment?

- Repeated and unwelcome comments or gestures of a sexual nature, including demeaning references to gender, sexually suggestive or derogatory comments about body or clothing, or obscene language or gestures.
- Repeated and unwelcome sexual advances; requests for sexual favors; or verbal comments, gestures, or actions of a derogatory or offensive sexual nature.

What Is Sexual Abuse?

- Forced or coerced sexual intercourse or sexual contact when the victim does not consent or is unable to consent or refuse. This may include the use of fear or threat of physical violence, psychological intimidation, bullying, and physical force.
- Sexual abuse also can include incidents of penetration by a foreign object.

What is staff voyeurism?

An invasion of privacy of an incarcerated person, by a staff member, contractor, or volunteer, for reasons unrelated to official duties.

Examples of Staff Voyeurism

- Watching an incarcerated person use the toilet, shower, or change clothes.
- Requiring an incarcerated person to show their buttocks, genitals, or breasts. (Except when conducting a strip search)
- Taking pictures of an incarcerated person's naked body or toilet use.

Tips for Avoiding Sexual Abuse and Sexual Harassment

A victim is never to blame for being attacked, but these tips may help you lower your risk of sexual abuse or sexual harassment.

- Pay attention to your surroundings.
- Carry yourself in a confident manner at all times.
- Do not accept gifts or favors from others. They usually come with "strings attached" or future paybacks, including sexual favors.
- Do not accept an offer from another incarcerated person to be your protector or "friend."
- Find a staff member with whom you feel comfortable discussing your fears and concerns. Confide in them if you feel threatened; or call (442) 265-2272.
- Be alert! Do not use contraband such as drugs or alcohol, as they will weaken your ability to be alert and make good choices.
- Be direct and firm when others ask you to do things that you do not want to do.
- Do not give mixed messages to others regarding your wishes for sexual activity.
- Choose your acquaintances wisely.

NO MEANS
NO

The Imperial County Jail does not tolerate any form of sexual abuse or sexual harassment. The goal of this facility is the safety of the incarcerated persons. The facility will hold accountable any persons found to have committed any form of sexual abuse or sexual harassment against another person.

If any of the information presented here is confusing, or you have questions about something that may be happening to you, ask a staff person you trust; or call (442) 265-2272.
